LET YOUR LIGHT SHINE!!!

During my recent trip to Greece I had the opportunity to attend the tonsure of a young woman (by the name Genovefa) to the monastic life. She was one of the children who were growing up with my children in Agia Napa in Cyprus during my service there. She has now grown to adulthood and made the serious decision to devote herself to constant prayer, to dedicate herself to God as a nun, a "bride of Christ". After two years of a testing period as a novice she was finally allowed to enter the ranks of "the angelic schema" of the monastics. This entails obedience to God and her abbess, a life of temperance and humility, fasting and prayer, chastity and poverty.

The tonsure of a nun is held during the Divine Liturgy after the Small Entrance. Dressed in a white tunic, she was led by the abbess into the small church of the ancient monastery. She went up to her parents and grandmother (standing on the left) and received their blessing. She kissed her siblings and then received the blessing of her spiritual fathers; this was a very touching moment for me for she had had her first confessions with me as she was growing up and had specifically invited me to be present for this. She was now following in the footsteps of the saints: "Will she be able to sanctify herself through this life", I thought. Two other young women from Agia Napa who are already at the monastery as nuns stood on each side chanting "Kyrie Eleyson" as Genovefa bent down in front of the bishop who read the prayers over her. The bishop cut her hair in a crosswise manner and then put over her the black monastic habit pronouncing her new name "Macrina". This was the feast day of St. Macrina, sister of St. Basil. Genovefa was leaving behind her old self and embracing this new life along with a new name. Her face was glowing with joy. Everyone noted at that moment and later that her face had changed after the tonsure. She was reborn in the Holy Spirit!

The service continued as the nuns chanted in their beautiful voices "those who have been baptized into Christ, have put on Christ, Alleluia!" (Gal. 3:27) But the most moving moment for me, was when the bishop handed her a cross and a candle to hold telling her to "let your light shine in front of men so that they may see your good works and glorify God who is in heaven." (Matt. 5:16)

Macrina is on the path to sanctification and holiness. May the light of her life shine in front of us so that we may find our path to the Kingdom of God, as well.

MAY GOD BLESS YOU ALL, ALWAYS!

Saint Kosmas Aitolos, the New Hieromartyr and Equal-to-the-Apostles (+1779)
August 24th

Saint Kosmas the Aitolian, or Patrokosmas, as he is called, is a figure in both church and national history who in the 18th century cast his light upon the path which the Greeks would follow a little before the outbreak of the Struggle for Liberation. He was the son of devout parents who brought him up accordingly, and he came from the village of Mega Dendron in Aitolia.

His aptitude for learning took him to the school run by the Vatopedi Monastery on the Holy Mountain, where he studied under teachers famed for their learning. When the Athonite Academy fell into decay, the young Kostas (his name in the world) went to the Philotheou Monastery. There he was tonsured a monk and given the name of Kosmas and zealously engaged in many ascetic practices. At the request of the fathers of the Monastery, he was ordained a priest.

St. Kosmas had a burning desire to be of service to his brothers in Christ who were suffering so many hardships. The enslavement of many years with the subsequent degradation of life, ignorance, and the decline into barbarity in behaviour were the scourges of the mass of Christians. The reflections of St. Kosmas on this situation led him to go out to the people and begin a series of preaching tours. As his thoughts matured, with the permission of the fathers of the Monastery, around 1760 he left for Constantinople, where he received the blessing of the Patriarch Seraphim II.

St. Kosmas began his preaching from the enslaved Capital itself. He then went to Nafpaktos, Mesolonghi, and other areas, returning to Constantinople in 1774. With the permission of the new Patriarch Sophronius II, the Saint resumed his apostolic task. He returned for a little while to Athos, but his love for the Church's flock led his steps to Thessaloniki, Veria, and other parts of Macedonia. From there, he moved on to Acarnania and Aitolia, as far as Arta and Preveza.

Because of the large crowds which followed him, the Saint used to preach on open plains, always with the permission of the local bishop and aga (local Turkish official). His words were simple, but filled with the Holy Spirit. It was his custom wherever he was going to preach to tell the people to construct a wooden cross. He would then place a stool which he carried with him against the cross and preach standing upon it. The cross would remain as a reminder of his preaching. (cont.--> )

Saint Kosmas Aitolos, the New Hieromartyr and Equal-to-the Apostles (+1779)
August 24th

St. Kosmas preaching to the people - Martyrdom of St. Kosmas by the Turks - Finding of St. Kosmas' body

The Saint urged the Christians to build schools so that their children could learn about the Faith and be well-grounded in Christian piety. He would speak to them about the services of the Church, explain to them the value of repentance and confession, warning them against sin and urging them to lead lives of goodness.

As with the Apostles, St. Kosmas' preaching was often confirmed by miraculous signs. The Saint was admired and even feared by many Turks, and hated by many Jews. They spread unfounded accusations against him and slandered him to Kurt Pasha, to whom they offered money if he would put St. Kosmas to death. Kurt Pasha conspired with the hodja of the village of Kolikontasi in Albania that a trap would be set for St. Kosmas. On the pretext that the Pasha wished to see him, they took the Saint to a remote spot and hung him on August 24th, 1779. His murderers stripped the sanctified body of the Saint, tied a stone to it, and threw it into the river. The local Christians looked for his corpse, but could not find it. In a miraculous manner it rose to the surface and was pulled out by Papa Markos, the priest of the All-Holy Theotokos of the Presentation Monastery, which is near Kolikontasi, and buried it at the back of the sanctuary. Many other miracles followed the martyr's death of the Saint, and he was quickly established in the mind of the people not only as a martyr but as a true apostle.

WHAT IS STEWARDSHIP?

Stewardship is the act of returning to God what is His. We offer ourselves and all creation to the Lord at every Divine Liturgy with the words, "Your own gifts, of Your own, we offer to You." We acknowledge that everything we offer to God is a gift from Him. We take what God has given to us and we return it to Him as an act of our thanksgiving and praise.

As stewards of God's gifts, we return to Him a portion of our time, talents and treasures so that Christ's work on earth might be accomplished through His Church.

Please join the Stewardship program so that you may receive the joy which He gives to those who love Him!

*"We praise you, we bless you,
we thank you, O Lord and we pray to you O our God."*

The Choir welcomes and needs new voices, young and old, to sing with us during services on Sundays and various Holidays. It is not necessary for you to read or speak Greek. Most music is in English phonetics. All we need is for you to make a commitment to sing with us to enhance the spiritual element of the Divine Liturgy and other services.

Join the Choir...

You'll Be Glad You Did!

Please join us in singing a "Joyful Noise Unto the Lord". For further info, please contact the church office or Demetri Miltiades at dmiltiades@mslogistics.us

GOYA- CELEBRATIONS IN AUGUST

Sat., 08/06/2011

TRANSFIGURATION OF OUR LORD &
SAVIOR JESUS CHRIST

“Christ took Peter, James, and John, and led them up on a high mountain apart by themselves; and He was transfigured before them; and His face shone like the sun, and His clothes became as white as the light. Moses and Elijah appeared to them, talking with Him. Then a bright cloud overshadowed them; and suddenly a voice came out of the cloud, saying, “This is My beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased. Listen to Him!””

-Doxastikon of the Transfiguration of our Lord Jesus Christ

Sat., 08/13/2011

ST. MAXIMOS THE CONFESSOR

“When all the people in Babylon were worshipping the golden idol, the Three Holy Youths did not condemn anyone to perdition. They did not concern themselves with what others were doing, but took care only for themselves, so as not to fall away from true piety. In precisely the same way, Daniel also, when cast into the den, did not condemn any of those who, in fulfilling the law of Darius, did not want to pray to God; but he bore in mind his duty, and desired rather to die than to sin and be tormented by his conscience for transgressing God’s Law. God forbid that I, too, should condemn anyone, or say that I alone am being saved. However, I would sooner agree to die than, having apostatized in any way from the right faith, endure the torments of my conscience.”

-St. Maximos the Confessor

Mon., 08/15/2011

DORMITION OF OUR MOST HOLY LADY
THE THEOTOKOS & EVER-VIRGIN MARY

“At your deathless Dormition, O Theotokos and Mother of Life, clouds caught the Apostles up into the air; and, from being dispersed throughout the world, they were reunited before your immaculate body. And when they had buried you with dignity, they lifted up their voices and sang the words of Gabriel: “Rejoice, O unwedded and virgin Mother who are full of grace; the Lord is with you.” Along with them, entreat your Son and our God, for the salvation of our souls.”

-Doxastikon of the Dormition of the Theotokos

Wed., 05/24/2011

ST. KOSMAS
AITOLOS,
NEW HIEROMARTYR
& EQUAL-TO-THE-APOSTLES

“This prayer should never be absent from you: ‘Lord, Jesus Christ, Son and Logos of the Living God, through the Theotokos and all the Saints, have mercy upon me, Thy sinful and unworthy servant’. Always say this prayer both with your mouth and with your mind, day and night, wherever you may be, whether eating, walking, working, or sitting. Always meditate on it, as it benefits you a great deal, frees you from every evil, delivers you there from eternal Hell, and renders you worthy of going to Paradise, our heavenly country.”

-St. Kosmas Aitolos

Mon., 05/29/2011

BEHEADING OF THE VENERABLE HEAD OF THE GLORIOUS PROPHET,
FORERUNNER & BAPTIST JOHN

“The memory of the just is observed with hymns of praise; for you suffices the testimony of the Lord, O Forerunner. You have proved to be truly more venerable than the Prophets, since you were granted to baptize in the river the One whom they proclaimed. Therefore, when for the truth you had contested, rejoicing, to those in Hades you preached the Gospel, that God was manifested in the flesh, and takes away the sin of the world, and grants to us the great mercy.”

-Apolytikion of the Prophet and Forerunner John the Baptist

Prime Timers News

Our last general meeting was our annual summer picnic/barbeque in June at the PLC. Thank you Xanthippe Marsico for making arrangements with Williamson Bros. for a delicious lunch, and for testing our “trivia” knowledge with engaging activities. On July 24, some of us enjoyed watching a polo match at the Chukkar Farm Polo Club in Alpharetta. We were happy to support the Cherokee Rotary Club in this fund raiser for the Goshen Valley Boys Ranch.

In memory of Kristalia Metropoulos, Prime Timers has donated $300 toward the cost of the Holy Transfiguration Icon. “Kris” was very active in our Prime Timers, and we will miss her very much. May her memory be eternal!

We hope everyone has been enjoying their summer and will be ready to join Prime Timers for fun and fellowship at our upcoming events! Please mark your calendars for:

August 20:           General Meeting and Brunch/Lunch at the Diner at North Point (see below)

September 18:     Sponsor “Coffee/Fellowship Hour” (Sign up at Aug. 20 General Meeting)
