ST. JOHN CHRYSOSTOM (November 13)

The grace of your words illuminated the universe like a shining beacon. It amassed treasures of munificence in the world. It demonstrated the greatness of humility, teaching us by your own words; therefore, O Father John Chrysostom, intercede to Christ the Logos for the salvation of our souls.

BEING INSPIRED BY BEAUTY

For the past three weeks the Iconographer Elias Katsaros has been working very hard installing the Icon of Christ the Pantocrator and the twelve Prophets on the dome of our church. The white empty walls are being gradually transformed into a colorful inspiring space representing Heaven and the Glory of God hovering above us as we worship on Sundays. The Prophets around the dome will continually remind us that the prophecies of the Old Testament have been fulfilled in the person of Jesus Christ. He is the same "Pantocrator" (the almighty ruler of all) who was revealed to the Prophets of old, whom they proclaimed to His "chosen people". He is the Logos (the Word) of the Father who was always present in the world revealing His will to His people. The Prophets on the dome continue to point to Jesus as the promised Messiah-the Christ offering up with us their worship to Him as the Incarnate, Risen Lord and God.

This inspiration is the primary goal of the iconography adorning our church; it seeks to transform our worship space from ordinary space to sacred space. The theology of the church will be proclaimed from the walls as we are surrounded by the saints and sacred scenes from the life of Christ. The biblical events will come alive as we read them during the services and recognize the details in the surrounding icons. The saints standing around us will remind us that the "church triumphant" (those already in the Kingdom of God) is worshipping with us at every Divine Liturgy.

Please come and behold the beauty of this art. Come and allow yourself to be inspired. Join with the saints of the church in worshipping Him, the Pantocrator - ruler of all - witnessed by His Prophets.

Join us to offer thanks and glory to God for all His Gifts and Love for us.

The Synaxis of the Holy Archangels Michael and Gabriel and all the Bodiless Powers of Heaven - November 8

Archangel Gabriel

Synaxis of the Archangels

Archangel Michael

All the Angels, according to the Apostle Paul, are ministering spirits, - sent forth to minister to them who shall be heirs of salvation - (Heb. 1:14). God set them as overseers of every nation and people, and guides to that which is profitable (Deut. 32:8); and while one Angel is appointed to oversee each nation as a whole, one is also appointed to protect each Christian individually. He commands them to guard them that hope on Him, that nothing should harm them, neither should any evil draw nigh to their dwelling (Ps. 90:10-12). In the Heavens they always behold the face of God, sending up to Him the thrice-holy hymn and interceding with Him in our behalf, seeing they rejoice over one sinner that repents (Esaias 6:2-3; Matt. 18:10; Luke 15:7). In a word, they have served God in so many ways for our benefit, that the pages of Holy Scripture are filled with the histories thereof. It is for these reasons that the Orthodox Catholic Church, wisely honouring these divine ministers, our protectors and guardians, celebrates today the present Synaxis that is, our coming together in assembly for their common feast to chant their praises, especially for the Archangels Michael and Gabriel, who are mentioned in the Scriptures by name. The name Michael means "Who is like God?" and Gabriel means "God is mighty." The number of Angels is not defined in the divine Scriptures, where Daniel says that thousands of thousands ministered before Him, and ten thousands of ten thousands attended upon Him -(Dan. 7:10). But all of them are divided into nine orders which are called Thrones, Cherubim, Seraphim, Dominions, Powers, Authorities, Principalities, Archangels, and Angels.

Apolytikion in the Fourth Tone

O Commanders of the Heavenly Host, we the unworthy beseech you, that through your entreaties you will fortify us, guarding us in the shelter of the wings of your ethereal glory, even as we fervently bow before you crying: "Deliver us from all danger, as Commanders of the Powers on high! "

Kontakion in the Second Tone

Chief Commanders of God; ministers of divine glory; guides for men and leadership of the Incorporeal; as Chief Commanders of the Incorporeal, plead for our welfare and for great mercy.

Seraphim

Cherubim

The Holy Divine Liturgy

"Holy, Holy, Holy, Lord of Sabaoth, heaven and earth are full of Thy glory!"

Saint Katherine the Great Martyr of Alexandria

November 25

Saint Catherine, who was from Alexandria, was the daughter of Constatas (or Cestus). She was an exceedingly beautiful maiden, most chaste, and illustrious in wealth, lineage, and learning. By her steadfast understanding, she utterly vanquished the passionate and unbridled soul of Maximinus, the tyrant of Alexandria; and by her eloquence, she stopped the mouths of the so-called philosophers who had been gathered to dispute with her. She was crowned with the crown of martyrdom in the year 305. Her holy relics were taken by Angels to the holy mountain of Sinai, where they were discovered many years later; the famous monastery of Saint Catherine was originally dedicated to the Holy Transfiguration of the Lord and the Burning Bush, but later was dedicated to Saint Catherine. According to the ancient usage, Saints Catherine and Mercurius were celebrated on the 24th of this month, whereas the holy Hieromartyrs Clement of Rome and Peter of Alexandria were celebrated on the 25th. The dates of the feasts of these Saints were interchanged at the request of the Church and Monastery of Mount Sinai, so that the festival of Saint Catherine, their patron, might be celebrated more festively together with the Apodosis of the Feast of the Entry of the Theotokos. The Slavic Churches, however, commemorate these Saints on their original dates.

Apolytikion in the Plagal of the First Tone

Let us praise the most auspicious bride of Christ, the divine Katherine, protectress of Sinai, our aid and our help. For, she brilliantly silenced the eloquence of the impious by the sword of the spirit, and now, crowned as a martyr, she asks great mercy for all.

Kontakion in the Second Tone

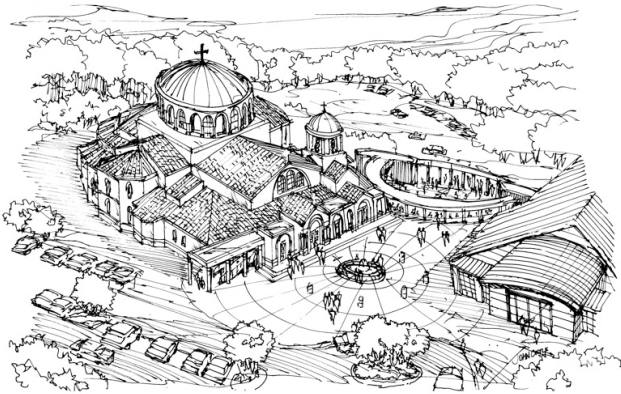

O friends of martyrs, now divinely raise up a renewed chorus, praising the all-wise Katherine. For, she proclaimed Christ in the arena, trampled on the serpent, and spat upon the knowledge of the orators.

Enabling our hearts to be encouraged, being knit together in love, and attaining to all riches through the understanding of the mystery of God. (Col. 2:2)

Please fill out your Pledge Card today and bring your offering to the Lord.

"Honor the LORD with your substance and with the first fruits of all your produce." (Proverbs 3:9)

"YOUR OWN GIFTS, OF YOUR OWN,
WE OFFER UNTO YOU."

WHAT IS STEWARDSHIP?

Stewardship is the act of returning to God what is His. We offer ourselves and all creation to the Lord at every Divine Liturgy with the words, "Your own gifts, of Your own, we offer to You." We acknowledge that everything we offer to God is a gift from Him. We take what God has given to us and we return it to Him as an act of our thanksgiving and praise.

As stewards of God's gifts, we return to Him a portion of our time, talents and treasures so that Christ's work on earth might be accomplished through His Church.

Please join the Stewardship program so that you may receive the joy which He gives to those who love Him!

*"We praise you, we bless you,
we thank you, O Lord and we pray to you O our God."*

The Necessity of Stewardship

Our Parish depends on the Stewardship of its members. Our Parish is funded by us.

Let us offer to our Parish from the Gifts of God to us. Let us offer in proportion of His Gifts to us. Let us bring our offering with a joyful heart.

You will be Blessed greatly if you support the work of our Parish and the work of His Church.

Nikolay Gerjoi - October 31, 2010

Congratulations!

Congratulations to Helen S. Carlos on her recognition by the Marcus Autism Center as an outstanding volunteer and supporter of the Center! The honor was given by the Miracle Workers, the volunteer guild on September 28th.

Congratulations to Arthur Tingas, who just won a substantial cash scholarship and recognition as one of the "20 Best and Brightest Young Greek-American Scholars" in the United States from The PanHellenic Scholarship Foundation in Chicago! Way to go!

Hellenic Dance

Remember when we used to gather on 'Family Night' to just be together, eat and visit with each other? Well, we believe it's time to offer those evenings again!!

Everyone is invited to the next community wide Family-Night Dance on Saturday, November 6. It will be a pot luck dinner, and music will be playing so that we can dance the night away!! This is a great family opportunity to come and have fun, learn any dances you have been meaning to learn, or just brush up on any that you don't know. We will have instructors available to teach or refresh the steps. Hope you and your family can make it!!

HOPE/JOY

Thank you to all who participated last month. We had a wonderful session with Fr. Panayiotis. Many thanks to Tyrone Emery for an inspirational tour through St. Andrew's Chapel. Mr. Ty spoke of the different sections of the church and there was a discussion on Icons. Please mark your calendars for our next meeting on November 14th in the PLC. We will share a potluck dinner and proceed with the program. Our guest speaker is Dr. Larry Gess and the topic will be "As a parent, how much do I impact my child's future?"

Upcoming Meetings: Jan 9th - Potluck / PLC - 5pm
March 6th - Potluck / PLC 5pm

Join the Choir...

You'll Be Glad You Did!

The Choir welcomes and needs new voices, young and old, to sing with us during services on Sundays and various Holidays. It is not necessary for you to read or speak Greek. Most music is in English phonetics. All we need is for you to make a commitment to sing with us to enhance the spiritual element of the Divine Liturgy and other services.

Practices are limited to certain times of the year held primarily before the Christmas Season and also before and during The Great Lenten Season of Pascha. Most Practices are held @ 7pm on either Tuesdays, Wednesdays and / or Thursday evenings.

Please join us in singing a "Joyful Noise Unto the Lord". For further info, please contact the church office or Demetri Miltiades @ dmiltiades@mslogistics.us

We look forward to you joining us.

HOLY TRANSFIGURATION GREEK ORTHODOX CHURCH HELLENIC STUDIES PROGRAM

We have had a great start to the 2010-2011 academic year with 42 students currently enrolled. This is up 7% over last year's ending enrollment. Thank you everyone for your support! We will be accepting enrollment through the first of next year, so don't miss the opportunity to learn Greek, whether you already speak some Greek or are a beginner. We have four levels of classes for children and three for adults to accommodate you wherever you may be. Please contact Eleni Clement (liebel7@yahoo.com) or Natalie Konstantinidis (creco3@yahoo.com).

An exciting year has been planned with many fun events scattered throughout the year. If you would like to help with any of these events or have any questions, please contact Toula Brotsis (toulaar@netzero.com), our Fundraising Coordinator or Brandy Vachtsevanos (brandyandchris_v@gmail.com), our Events Coordinator.

The next couple of events that we have planned are:

- Fundraising Bake Sale – On November 14, we will have a table set up in the PLC with all kinds of baked goodies for you to purchase.
- December Christmas Caroling – Please watch for a sign up table and additional information in the PLC after Nov. 1.

Check out the Hellenic Studies page on the Church website for upcoming events and important information on Hellenic Studies happenings!

And finally, a very special Thank You to Father Panayiotis for allowing us to participate in the OXI day (October 28, 1940) anniversary Doxology on Sunday, October 24. Remembering and participating in these historic events is important for our children to learn the importance of freedom and the price that has been paid so that they are able to enjoy it.

Happy Thanksgiving Day

--"If Jesus Christ had not been on earth, no one could have entered the Kingdom of Heaven... You see how Jesus Christ loves us, and what blessing He has bestowed upon us!... Jesus Christ wants from you only one thing: namely, He wants you to follow Him into the Kingdom of Heaven... Blessed and most blessed is he who follows Jesus Christ throughout his whole life, because he will certainly be there where Jesus Christ Himself lives. Happy is he who cares and tries to imitate Jesus Christ, because he will receive help from Jesus Christ.

--"But unhappy is he who has no desire to follow Jesus Christ, and excuses himself by saying that it is difficult to follow Him, or he has not the strength for it, because such a person deprives himself of the Grace of God and, as it were, pushes away the helping hand of Jesus Christ. And so, look to your salvation, while it is yet day, for the night will come, and then no one can work. Do not put it off from day to day, but hasten to the heavenly Kingdom while it is still possible; for death will come, and then it will be too late. Get going somehow or other to the Kingdom of Heaven, and then you will gradually be getting nearer to it, even though it is slow work-- just as when a person who is going somewhere takes a step forward, he gets nearer his destination.... Follow Him, hasten and do not delay.

--Saint Innocent of Alaska/ Moscow

The book for discussion is The Gurus, the Young Man and Elder Paisios by Dionysios Farasiotis. It is available in the bookstore. This will be the final discussion on this book. Please contact Elene Catrakilis, elenecat@yahoo.com, if you have any questions. If anyone has any suggestions for spiritual book club reading, please email your suggestions to Elene to be forwarded to Father for consideration.

PASSAGES WE LOVE: In our spiritual reading endeavours and discussions, we come across many gems of truth which stand out in our minds. We would like to share some of our favorite passages: In "The Gurus, the Young Man and Elder Paisios," Dionysios Farasiotis tells us: "I had fasted, gone to Confession...when the priest placed Holy Communion in my mouth, I felt Christ Himself flooding my entire being, body and soul. Christ the Creator united Himself more intimately and more deeply with me, the work of His hands, than is possible for two people in this world to be united. People are physically separated by the boundaries of their own skin. Even an embryo is separated from its mother by the wall of its newly forming skin. Christ, however, became one with me on a deeper level, in a unique union. His blood literally merged with my blood; His body literally was fused to my body, so that my hands, my feet, my eyes, and all the other parts of my body had become members of the body of Christ... -after I had committed so many sins- Christ God ineffably condescended to come and palpably dwell within me, making me for a short while a God-bearer. I was in awe at His manifest presence in my mind, soul and body. It was beyond my comprehension how this took place..." p.288
