VACATIONING AND STAYING CONNECTED !!!

As we begin our Summer vacation we are all preparing to go places and visit friends and family we haven't seen in a while. Kids will leave their classmates and neighbors behind but are looking forward to making new acquaintances and building new friendships.

In this world of the digital age, however, though we will all travel far and wide we are planning to stay connected! Facebook membership has increased by leaps and bounds in the last few years and even though we may be going many thousands of miles away from our base, we are going to remain close to everyone - just a mouse-click away. Many of us have iPhones and androids, iPads, laptops and net-books and we are going to carry them around with us looking for a signal to get us online. Our voice will be traveling through the air in a miraculous way reaching those we have left behind to assure them that we are doing well. Images and even videos will be transmitted to websites and hard drives to share with others what our eyes are seeing and our ears are hearing. We are living at an amazing time, for sure!

It seems to me that this digital connection, however, which can be achieved wherever we are through air waves and satellites, is not very different from the spiritual connection we can always have with God wherever we are. The spiritual one is even easier, because we do not need smartphones or tablets, hard drives or websites. God's satellite reaches everywhere without the need of any equipment. His "Facebook" is always open and ready to receive and interface with each one of us at any time.

Prayer is the way we connect to God. Prayer is a loving relationship with Him Who sustains our life, grants us wisdom and understanding, protection and health. We need to make sure that each day we plug into God's source of energy and life so that we may continue to live both physically as well as spiritually. We should never forget that the goal of our lives is to become Holy as God is Holy; that our ultimate destination is the Kingdom of God!

Our vacation needs to be a very pleasant one, but it can also be a very blessed one, as well. We have the means to attain both goals. Let's have fun but not sin! Let's remember to connect to God as we connect to the people around us. It is for our physical and emotional welfare to have friends, to love and feel loved! It is for our spiritual welfare and eternal salvation to love God and experience His love.

My brothers and sisters, let us travel, vacation and have fun but stay connected. Let us make sure that those we left behind share with us the sights and sounds of our experiences as we travel. More than anything else, let us not lose our connection with God. No matter where you are, seek the closest Orthodox church nearby for the Sunday services, but above all, raise your heart and mind and offer your praise and glorification to God from anywhere and at any time. His network is never down. Your voice will always reach Him. Your messages will always be received. His Grace will always be with you!

HAVE A JOYOUS SUMMER AND A BLESSED VACATION!

TRUE STEWARDSHIP

In every Divine Liturgy the priest concludes every set of petitions with the following invocation:

"Let us commit ourselves and one another and our whole life unto Christ our God."

This is the ultimate Stewardship, as we surrender to God trusting that He loves us and will do for us what is best for us.

Feasts of June

June 11

Revelation of the Hymn "Axion Estin" to a monk on Mt. Athos by the Archangel Gabriel

The Synaxis of the Icon of the Most Holy Theotokos is celebrated June 11 for the following reason: In 980, during the reign of Emperor Basil II, when Nicholas Chrysoberges was Ecumenical Patriarch (984-995), the holy Archangel Gabriel appeared in the guise of a monk to the disciple of a certain elder living in a hermitage belonging to the monastery of Pantocrator on the Holy Mountain.

During Matins, after the monk had chanted the customary hymn, "More Honorable than the Cherubim...", composed by Saint Cosmas the Hymnographer, the Archangel chanted the same hymn, but with the following prelude: "It is truly meet to call thee blest, the Theotokos, the ever-blessed and most pure, and Mother of our God." Marveling at the hymn's beauty, the monk asked his visitor – who appeared also to be a monk - to record this new text in writing, which the Archangel did by miraculously inscribing the words on a piece of slate, using only his finger, and then vanished from sight.

This slate was brought to the Church of the Protaton, and from thence to Constantinople, to the imperial court and the Ecumenical Patriarchate, as evidence of the miracle. Henceforth, this version of the hymn to the Most Holy Theotokos began to be chanted in the Divine Liturgy in all the churches. The place where the miracle took place is now called Adein, for the Greek word which means "to sing." The icon itself, before which this hymn was first chanted, is called "The Icon of the Axion Estin" ("It is truly meet") and it is kept in the sanctuary of the Church of the Protaton on the Holy Mountain.

Aploytikion in the Fourth Tone

Ye hosts of the Fathers of Mount Athos, gather today, and shout with a voice of jubilation, leaping for joy, and faithfully keeping feast: For, behold, the praise of the most pure Theotokos wondrously and awesome is sung by the Angel; and therefore, as the Mother of God, we glorify her name.

Kontakion in the Fourth Tone

All of Athos keepeth feast this day in gladness; for it wondrously received from on Archangel's holy hand the hymn whereby thou hast ever been praised as the Mother of God, as is truly meet.

The Nativity of the Forerunner John the Baptist

Apolytikion in the Fourth Tone
O Prophet and Forerunner of the presence of Christ, we who fervently honor you cannot worthily praise you. For by your revered and glorious birth the barrenness of your mother and the muteness of your father were unbound, and the incarnation of the Son of God is proclaimed to the world.

Kontakion in the Third Tone
She that once was barren doth today bring forth Christ's Forerunner, John, the culmination and the crown of all the Prophets. For when he, in River Jordan, laid his hand on Him Whom the Prophets preached aforetime, he was revealed as God the Word's fore-chosen Prophet, His mighty preacher, and His Forerunner in grace.

He that was greater than all who are born of women, the Prophet who received God's testimony that he surpassed all the Prophets, was born of the aged and barren Elizabeth (Luke 1: 7) and filled all his kinsmen, and those that lived round about, with gladness and wonder. But even more wondrous was that which followed on the eighth day when he was circumcised, that is, the day on which a male child receives his name. Those present called him Zacharias, the name of his father. But the mother said, "Not so, but he shall be called John." Since the child's father was unable to speak, he was asked, by means of a sign, to indicate the child's name. He then asked for a tablet and wrote, "His name is John." And immediately Zacharias' mouth was opened, his tongue was loosed from its silence of nine months, and filled with the Holy Spirit, he blessed the God of Israel, Who had fulfilled the promises made to their fathers, and had visited them that were sitting in darkness and the shadow of death, and had sent to them the light of salvation. Zacharias prophesied concerning the child also, saying that he would be a Prophet of the Most High and Forerunner of Jesus Christ. And the child John, who was filled with grace, grew and waxed strong in the Spirit; and he was in the wilderness until the day of his showing to Israel (Luke 1:57-80). His name is a variation of the Hebrew "Johanan," which means "God is gracious."

Feasts of June

June 29 The Feast of the Apostles Peter and Paul

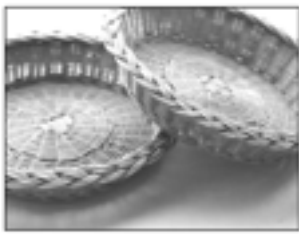

Peter was from Bethsaida of Galilee. He was the son of Jonas and the brother of Andrew the First-called. He was a fisherman by trade, unlearned and poor, and was called Simon; later he was renamed Peter by the Lord Jesus Christ Himself, Who looked at him and said, "Thou art Simon the son of Jonas; thou shalt be called Cephas (which is by interpretation, Peter)" (John 1:42). On being raised by the Lord to the dignity of an Apostle and becoming inseparable from Him as His zealous disciple, he followed Him from the beginning of His preaching of salvation up until the very Passion, when, in the court of Caiaphas the high priest, he denied Him thrice because of his fear of the Jews and of the danger at hand. But again, after many bitter tears, he received complete forgiveness of his transgression. After the Resurrection of Christ and the descent of the Holy Spirit, he preached in Judea, Antioch, and certain parts of Asia, and finally came to Rome, where he was crucified upside down by Nero about the year 66 or 68, leaving two Catholic (Universal) Epistles to the Church of Christ and a legacy of faith.

Paul, the chosen vessel of Christ, the glory of the Church, the Apostle of the Nations and teacher of the whole world, was a Jew by race, of the tribe of Benjamin, having Tarsus as his homeland. He was a Roman citizen, fluent in the Greek language, an expert in knowledge of the Law, a Pharisee, born of a Pharisee, and a disciple of Gamaliel, a Pharisee and notable teacher of the Law in Jerusalem. For this cause, from the beginning, Paul was a most fervent zealot for the traditions of the Jews and a great persecutor of the Church of Christ; at that time, his name was Saul (Acts 22:3-4). In his great passion of rage and fury against the disciples of the Lord, he went to Damascus bearing letters of introduction from the high priest. His intention was to bring the disciples of Christ back to Jerusalem in bonds. As he was approaching Damascus, about midday there suddenly shone upon him a light from Heaven. Falling on the earth, he heard a voice saying to him, "Saul, Saul, why persecutest thou Me?" And he asked, "Who art Thou, Lord?" And the Lord said, "I am Jesus Whom thou persecutest; it is hard for thee to kick against the pricks." And that heavenly voice and brilliance made him tremble, and he was blinded for a time. He was led by the hand into the city, and on account of a divine revelation to the Apostle Ananias (see Oct. 1), he was baptized by him, and both his bodily and spiritual eyes were opened to the knowledge of the Sun of Righteousness. And straightway- O wondrous transformation! - beyond all expectation, he spoke with boldness in the synagogues, proclaiming that "Christ is the Son of God" (Acts 9:1-21). As for his zeal in preaching the Gospel after these things had come to pass, as for his unabating labors and afflictions of diverse kinds, the wounds, the prisons, the bonds, the beatings, the stonings, the shipwrecks.

Having completed the work of his ministry, Paul likewise ended his life in martyrdom when he was beheaded in Rome during the reign of Nero, at the same time, some say, when Peter was crucified.

STEWARDSHIP CORNER

What is Christianity!

One day, a person complained to his priest that the Church and Christianity is one continual “give, give, give.” To which the priest replied, “Thank you very much for the finest definition of Christianity I have ever heard. You’re right, Christianity is all about a constant “give, give, give.” God giving His only Son to the world to show His unconditional love. His Son Jesus giving His life on the cross to forgive our sins and destroy death. Then our Lord’s disciples giving all they had to make sure God’s Good News of love was preached to all people everywhere. They not only gave away their homes and businesses, but even gave up their lives as martyrs in gratitude to God!

In 2018, we have received 319 pledges. Thank you to the families who have submitted their 2018 Membership/Stewardship Pledge.

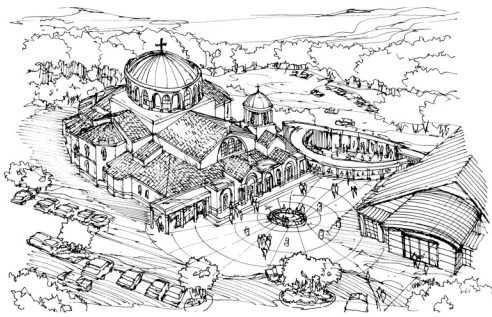

Our 2018 Membership/Stewardship goal is to receive 400 Membership/Stewardship Pledges. We have a long way to go to reach this goal and need everyone’s support. We are currently 81 pledges behind our 2018 goal. Please turn in your 2018 Pledge card as soon as possible.

It is offering our blessings back to God that He will be able to continue His forgiving, healing, liberating, empowering, transfiguring, loving ministry through the Church. For God, Infinite though He is, has chosen to work through us, through our gifts, to continue His saving work in the world today.

Fr. Anthony M. Coniaris

April and May were busy months for Philoptochos. Parishioners gave names of mothers, grandmothers, and special women in their lives for a Mother's Day Card. This card was mailed to all members of our community. The card grossed $1400; expenses, $318.26 and profit, $1081.74. We appreciate all those who donated to our first Mother's Day Card. We would like for this to become a new tradition in our parish.

We also had a successful Godparents Luncheon in April. A special thank you to Jim Tidwell for loaning the ice cream machine and the ice cream for the sundaes and Paula Christopher and Jo Kastner for the spring-like table decorations. The luncheon grossed $1069, expenses were $373.07, which left a profit of $695.93. Thank you to all who supported this project.

In April, about fifty women from the Women in Faith organization from Transfiguration Catholic Church came to Holy Transfiguration for a visit and a tour of the church. Father had a question and answer session in the atrium during a light breakfast hosted by Philoptochos. Next, Father led the group into a tour of the church. Our ladies group enjoyed meeting and sharing our faith with the visitors.

The Social Service expenses (local) for April and May are $2003.99.

Our National expenses for May and June include:

$150.00 (75th Anniversary Founders Fund) -Funds collected are restricted to providing financial support to Greek Orthodox older adults and their families to assist with housing, utility, unreimbursed or uncovered medical expenses, home health care, hospice, funerals and safety equipment, special approved projects and also provides support to existing, continuing care facilities serving the aging Greek Orthodox population in the United States, and may support the establishment of similar facilities.

$250.00 (Orthodox Christian Fellowship -OCF) – Funds collected are restricted to providing support to the Orthodox Christian Fellowship on college campuses, throughout the United States.

$200.00 (National Philoptochos Sponsorship) – Supporting the 2018 National Philoptochos Biennial Convention

Philoptochos will do the Back to School Backpack project again this year. We will be collecting school supplies for disadvantaged second and sixth graders in the Marietta school system. We have 40 backpacks to fill. We will kick off the project at our June 10 Philoptochos Summer luncheon and continue collecting through July 22. We will deliver the supply-filled backpacks before the first day of school. Please see attached flyers for the backpack project and the summer luncheon.

We celebrated two special birthdays in May! Best wishes to Father Panayiotis and Father George!

Christ said, a new commandment I give you: Love one another. As I have loved you, so also you must love one another.

This commandment is at the heart of every Philoptochos ministry, project and commitment. During the months of May and June, Philoptochos Chapters all over the United States contributed to two (2) projects:

75th Anniversary Founders Fund: To honor the founding members and their memory, a special fund was created on the 75th anniversary of Philoptochos, 2006. The purpose of this fund is to provide financial support to older adults and their families, as well as long term care facilities serving aging Greek Orthodox individuals throughout the U.S.

OCF – Orthodox Christian Ministries, an Archdiocese project of the Dept. of Youth Ministries. This ministry provides support to college students on campuses in the US. We have 240 chapters at universities and colleges throughout the U.S.

We all know how EXCITED our kids & grandkids are to start the new school year....So let's make this year EXTRA SPECIAL for kids in need!

NEWS YOU CAN USE!

HOW TIMES FLIES!! It seemed like the festival was weeks away. Everyone worried that it would rain and yet it was a beautiful weekend. Father sent an email for everyone to pray for good weather since it was supposed to rain and....never underestimate the power of prayer! We all prayed and the weather was delightful. Congratulations to the festival committee for a JOB WELL DONE!!

Summer is quickly approaching. Prime Timers board will not meet during the months of June and July; however, we will celebrate July 4th. Since it is so hot outside, we are planning an indoor patriotic picnic at "COME AND GET IT" on Saturday, July 7, at 11:30 am. After lunch we are planning to play BUNCO. This year the prizes will not be gift cards. Come and be surprised!!! Of course, we will sing our patriotic songs!! Dessert is also a surprise for YOU!

There are so many things we would like to do. And we encourage your suggestions. We have so many ministries and each has its own agenda. We will continue with MOVIE NIGHT during the summer if possible. A weekend trip is in the planning stages and, hopefully, will be finalized by next month.

Our CHILDREN'S DAY coffee hour was so much fun! Just seeing the little children and how excited they were. It was worth it seeing their smiling faces. We hope to repeat this again next year.

HOPE EVERYONE HAS A DELIGHTFUL SUMMER!!

In Christ's Name,

Connie Stratigos

Dr. Allen Macris In Memoriam

Dr. Allen (Angelos) Macris was born in Zakynthos, Greece on November 12, 1927. His life ended peacefully at his home in Sandy Springs, Georgia on March 14, 2018. He is buried in Greenwood Cemetery, where a Greek Orthodox chapel is maintained by the Greek Orthodox Cathedral of Atlanta.

Dr. Macris and his older brother John travelled alone by ship to New York in May of 1937. Their mother had died in a sanitarium in Switzerland; their baby sister had also died. Their father, George Macris, was living in Atlanta and was remarried to a very devout Greek Orthodox christian. She was a strict mother and taught the boys the Greek language and all she could about Greek Orthodoxy.

He and his family were devout members of the Greek Orthodox church in Atlanta until Holy Transfiguration was started in 1998. The first organizational meeting to start this new church was held in his home. He continued to participate in the cathedral services until 1997, when he retired. He would attend the earlier Orthros service and then go to the hospitals for rounds.

in Atlanta, young Allen excelled in academics. He attended E. Rivers grade school and North Fulton High. He became a member of the Bulkhead Boys. He graduated from Emory University with a BA in Chemistry and followed his studies at Emory for his MD. After finishing medical school, he chose Washington University in St. Louis, Missouri for his internship. He served there at the St. Louis City Hospital. In 1953, he met and married Eftichia Hassopoulou. She had just finished her degree from Washington University. Eftichia had started her degree in medicine in Athens, Greece but family circumstances brought her to St. Louis. The educational systems of Greece and America being different she had to finish a premed degree before medical school.

Their marriage was "made in heaven." They were devoted to each other and spent 65 years together. Allen and Eftichia had five children. Their two sons Michael and Demetrios are both in medical practice: Cardio Thoracic Surgery in Houston for Michael and Peripheral Vascular Surgery in San Antonio for Demetrios. Crystallenia, their first born, and her husband Theodore live in Atlanta and have three children and three grandchildren. Rhena and her husband Bill live in Dallas, Texas; they have a daughter and a son. Michael has two daughters. Demetrios and his wife Vivian have a daughter and two sons. Hryssoula Maria lives in Thessaloniki, Greece; she has a son and a daughter (both in medical school.) Maria's husband Kostas is also a surgeon.

Dr. Macris was a very inquisitive man. He read a great deal and had an extensive library. He was blessed with a keen memory. He recited poetry that he had learned from early childhood through college and beyond. He would often break into singing. Some lyrics he learned from the internet; some were hymns from church. Every morning he would use his iPad to find and read the Bible assignment. In so doing he learned Biblical Greek; often he would ask Eftichia grammatical questions. He had only gone to school in Greece for two years. The Greek Orthodox Church had an afternoon Greek language school. Allen's parents made sure that their boys attended it regularly.

From 1955-1956, Dr. Macris served in the US Air Force as a captain at Ellsworth Air Base in South Dakota. He was an original member of the Southern Thoracic Society and the American Society of Thoracic Surgery. AHEPA was his favorite organization; he was a member for 64 years. He wrote beautiful letters and served as secretary to his Emory medical school class of 1952.

In 1967-68, Dr. Macris studied in Houston, Texas with Dr. Michael DeBakey and Dr. Denton Cooley learning heart surgery. They were pioneers in heart transplantation. For many years he worked on creating a face chamber for administering oxygen. Dr. Macris was a caring person; he helped many people come from Greece to Atlanta for medical help. Many of them stayed with the family. Also, students new to Atlanta, friends of the children and family stayed with the Macrises. His door was always open and the house was harmonious and full of music.

Dr. Macris, "Doc," was a gentleman farmer. There are many friends and family with fond memories of working on his farm in north Georgia. He raised poultry, rabbits and cattle. Doc and his son in law Theodore took the first flock of chickens to the Diakonia Center. He donated beef for the festival at Holy Transfiguration. When Crawford Long Hospital was renovated, he took the stoves of its kitchen to the cathedral for the festival on Clairmont Road.

He was involved in the progress of Holy Transfiguration and was very interested in its iconography. His patron saint was St. Dionysios of Zakynthos. He was so pleased to obtain the saint's icon and wrote the pamphlet that describes the saint's life and attributes.

Many people remember and honor his memory.
